

Mr. Tavakkol Davani
General Manager of Bina Consulting Engineers

Dear Sir,

No doubt, social security is the achievement of active, relentless, provident and fair contribution of a collection of creative and constructive as well as progressive powers, among which clients have a determiner and historic role in the present time and in the future. Such a contribution supports the mental security of human resources, promotes the level of utilization and stabilizes Social Security Organization in order to improve its organized activities and promote its services and productions to make a responsible organization for insured clients.

Therefore, Social Security Organization is entrusted with the duty of thanking and appreciating your efforts, attempts and determinations supporting productive capabilities and continual optimization of social security. This letter of appreciation is presented to you to thank your worthy cooperation with our best regards.

I request ever-increasing reverence and success from merciful God for you.

Best regards,

Mohammad Sattarifar
Chairman of board of directors and general manager
